

Why Your Dentifrice?

25¢

YOU use a dentifrice to keep your teeth white—to give health to the gums, and cleanliness and comfort to the mouth. Dentists say this is all any dentifrice can safely do. And this is what Klenzo Dental Cream accomplishes perfectly. The dentifrice famous for its lingering Cool, Clean, Klenzo Feeling. Get a tube today.

A card from J. F. Williams informs us that he has made another change, this time from Lorimer, Wis., to Warrensburg, Ill.

John Hickey was up from Port Huron Tuesday and while here sold the Mulligan property on North Main street to Oliver Jacobs.

Dr. J. B. Stevens was called to St. Mary's Ont., last week to see his brother, who was very low and not expected to live, but failed to reach his bedside in time to see him alive.

The Amerlin Co. has acquired a site for a flax mill on the Smafield property near the depot. The company will start the erection of a plant here in a few weeks. Everything helps.—Peck Times.

Rev. Bradfield, a former pastor of the Cass City Presbyterian church, passed through Cass City Tuesday. He told some of his old friends that he has left the ministry and is going to move onto a farm in the southern part of the state.—Cass City Chronicle.

Mrs. Bert Evans, accompanied by her father, James Wallace went to Ann Arbor last week to have her tonsils removed. It proved quite a serious operation, but Mrs. Evans came through nicely and was able to return home on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. I. Hodgins, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Menerey autoed to Shabbona Sunday to visit their uncle, Joseph Menerey, who was taken sick while visiting relatives. Mr. Menerey had passed away before they reached their destination. The remains were taken to his home in Saginaw for burial.

The New England conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in session at Boston recently voted to lift the ban on dancing, card playing and theatre going. The words will be dropped from the book of discipline, and in their stead will be substituted "Practices that result in the loss of moral and spiritual character."

Yale is certainly a great Saturday night town. Every week end sees our Main street lined with autos and buggies belonging to people who come here to do their trading. Our merchants are always to the front with bargains, and it is a noticeable fact that the ones who advertise in the Expositor are the ones who get the biggest trade. This paper is the buyers' guide and it certainly pays to "toot your horn" through our columns.

The following clipping is taken from the Kissimmee Valley, Fla., Gazette and concerns Yale's former residents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hart—"Milton W. Eby and family of Orchard county, were in the city last Monday and purchased the 'Detroit Rest' on Penfield avenue. Mrs. Hart, the owner of Detroit Rest, will visit friends in Detroit in June, and the Eby family will take possession of their new home. The sale was made by the Nelson Realty Company. Kissimmee cordially welcomes the Eby family to our city and trust the Hart family will return again next winter."

Mrs. B. Clyne was at Capac on Tuesday.

Rain Monday evening followed by cold winds. Many farms in this locality are changing hands this spring.

What about a base ball team for Yale this season? The time is at hand for organizing if we are to have one, and the players should begin hard practice soon. Some of the neighboring towns have started work already, and we would like to see our boys get busy.

It is reported that the trains which were taken off about three weeks ago from this division of the Pere Marquette will be placed back again on Friday of this week. This will make it much better for people who are doing any traveling, as they can then get back the same day.

Pearl Bright and Marjorie Menzies, with their Sunday school classes, indulged in a pot-luck supper in the Presbyterian church dining room on Friday last. Twenty-two little girls and boys found room at the long table and enjoyed the feast of good things, afterwards playing games.

Plans are being formulated for the coming Caledonian celebration which will be held in Yale on July 5th and 6th, and from present outlook, the fifth annual celebration of this society will be the biggest thing ever attempted in this part of the state. We will be able soon to tell of some of the attractions that have been secured.

An old one—The preacher works for the souls of men and generally gets his pay; the merchant reaps his reward for toil in profits from day to day. The dealer in drinks (soft ones) stands behind the bar and fills up the glasses high; and he jingles the tin that the boys blow in of portions of good old rye, (maybe.) The lawyers and doctors find work to do that brings in the hard, cold cash; while the men who wield the plane and spade find money to buy their hash. But the editor has a thankless task, while the busy months roll by; he knows no rest of body or brain, while he misses a chance to die. No reward in this world will ever come, but over the silent sea, if justice reigns he is bound to have an elegant jubilee.

OBITUARY

Peleg Soule died at his home, Pleasant View Farm, in Brockway township at 5:30 p. m., Monday, April 26, 1920.

He had been ailing for some time and finally took to his bed three weeks ago.

Deceased was born January 8th, 1832, in the state of Maine. With his parents he moved to Canada when four years old. In the year 1850 he was united in marriage to Martha Marr, and to that union were born eleven children:—Mrs. John Humphrey, Bentley, Mich.; Mrs. Frank Miggins, Fort Worth, Texas; Mrs. John Marr, Levi Soule, Mrs. E. A. Pafford and Mrs. Cyrus Ludington, all of Flint; Five children preceded him in death. Besides he leaves to mourn his loss thirty-seven grand children and one great-grand child, also two brothers, Alex Soule, of Tyre, and David Soule, of Peck. His wife died Sept. 16, 1896, and he remarried April 17, 1901, to Mrs. Mary E. Pratt, of Standish, Mich., who survives him.

The funeral services are being held today (Thursday) April 29, from the M. P. church, Yale, under the auspices of the Masonic brotherhood, of which order he was a life-long member. He was laid to rest in Elmwood cemetery.

Members of the Music Study Club will note that the meeting for this week will be held with Mrs. J. A. Menzies.

Regular meeting of Yale Chapter O. E. S. will be held next Wednesday evening, May 5th.

Mrs. Etta Clyne, Sec.

Mrs. James McColl has been in very poor health this week. Her many friends hope that she may regain in health and strength soon.

John Holmes and mother were in Yale the first of the week. Mrs. Holmes sold her house and lot in the north part of the city to Geo. Stratenreider and will now make her home with her son in Detroit.

The Gleaner dance at Old Brockway last Friday evening was a success as is always the case. Seventy-five numbers were sold. The music furnished by Bailey's 3-piece orchestra of Port Huron was much enjoyed.

A meeting will be held in the Fremont town hall on May 5th, at 8:00 o'clock in the evening for the purpose of discussing the advisability of consolidating rural schools. A prominent speaker from Lansing will be present. Everybody cordially invited.

Mr. Karr, of Kingston, was in Yale Tuesday and purchased the racing horse, Don M., of John E. Staley. Burnell Beadle the same afternoon drove the horse to Marlette. Mr. Karr takes a good deal of sport out of racing horses and always has two or three to race during the season.

Our friend Adolphus Longeway of the New McDonald hotel, Sandusky, writes informing us that he is well and happy and hopes that all of his Yale friends are alive and kicking. He enclosed a one dollar William in the letter to apply on his subscription.

F. J. Wilt has just received a carload of Sampson Tractors and Plows.
